Debra "Debbie" D. Corcoran

November 10, 1959 - June 30, 2021

Debra “Debbie” D. (Courtney) Corcoran, 61, of Monrovia, passed unexpectedly from this life on Wednesday, June 30, 2021. She was born on November 10, 1959, in Wahiawa, HI to the late Albert Gene and Valinda Pearl (Dodson) Courtney.

A proud 1978 graduate from Decatur High School, Debbie met her future husband while visiting relatives, and was joyously united in marriage to the love of her life and forever soulmate, Kelly on January 14, 1978. She worked as a loan officer for several years, but her passion was being a mother and wife.

A devoted admirer of dogs, if you saw Debbie, she had her fur baby tagging along. For the sake of staying busy, she learned the fine arts of crafting, frequently needle pointing works of beauty. A master in the kitchen, if she weren’t concocting a culinary delight, she could be found watching cooking shows for a do-it-yourself recipe; her specialty being scrumptious manicotti. Although she could be inquisitive at times, she was a supportive and caring mother and wife, who held her family above all else. Debbie was a very special lady who will be deeply missed.

Debbie leaves behind her husband of 43 years, Kelly Corcoran of Monrovia; children, Craig Corcoran (wife, Amanda) of Fillmore and Christy Mascoe of Indianapolis; brother, Ronald Courtney of Indianapolis; grandchildren, Hailey, Gage, Ethan, Nick, and Gavin; great granddaughter Chloe; and her beloved Yorkie, Jacob.

Cremation Arrangements are entrusted to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel, and no services are planned at this time.
