*She did not like getting her picture taken, but jeremy was in it . She gave in.
I always grew her radishes in my garden for her. Planting some on her porch a couple times to , so they were fresh.
Still can't wrap my head around this. I can't believe this is real. Hugs to everyone.*

“ Anita was one of my most favorite people in the world. She loved me as if I were her family, she always called me her girl. She was spunky, had a heart of gold, very kind but also didn't take anyone's crap. She will be missed more than she would have guessed! I love you Anita, rest in peace my dear friend.
