September 5, 1941 - November 18, 2016

Barbara J. Corbett Drury Taylor, 75, of Martinsville, passed from this life on Friday, November 18, 2016, at St. Francis Hospital in Mooresville. She was born on September 5, 1941, in Indianapolis, to the late Charles H. Corbett, Sr. and Aleen (Walker) Drury.

“ Thank you for all your love and help in our lives from you and Uncle Earl through our tough times. You were always there for us. The happy times as well, on the lake boating and you were the best water skier and swimmer. You showed the family alot of love that we shall never forget. Thank you for saving me when the boat docks collapsed when I was a youngin. Thank you for the personal talks and wisdom as well and staying with you and Uncle on several occasions. Your spirit is now in the loving arms of the LORD. Deepest sympathy to my uncle and my cousins.

“ Beautiful Aunt Barb, you will be sadly missed by family and friends. May your light continue to shine on.

Nadine Collins - November 18, 2016 at 09:24 PM

I did Barb's care for several years. I invented "Sea Turtle Therapy" and spent many hours figuring out a name for her stuffed sea turtle among other things. She could not articulate clearly but I know she thought I was nuts but found it entertaining and we spent a lot of time laughing over things. I am so sorry to learn of her passing but her beautiful spirit will live on in my memory.
