

Becky Watson

January 20, 1963 - September 22, 2025

Rebecca “Becky” Watson Beloved Wife, Mother, Daughter, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, and Friend January 20, 1963 – September 22, 2025

Rebecca Jo “Becky” (Griffin) Watson, 62, of Monrovia and previously Indianapolis, fought a courageous and quiet battle with neuroendocrine cancer. As part of her fight, Becky was approved to receive a liver transplant, a testament to her determination and hope in the face of adversity. Due to unfortunate circumstances, the gifted liver was not viable, and she passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of her family on Monday, September 22, 2025, in the care of IU University Hospital.

Becky’s strength was matched by her grace. Though she faced a long and difficult fight, she carried herself with beauty, dignity, and a spirit she rarely let dim. Most never saw the depth of her struggle—because over the last 15 years she never let it define her.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Terry Watson, of Monrovia, previously Indianapolis; her loving daughters Jamie Binhack (Kyle) of Monrovia and Breanna Watson of Monrovia; her cherished grandchildren, Ezra and Lukas Binhack; her mother, Anna Griffin of Indianapolis; and her brother, Randy Griffin of Indianapolis; and spoiled rotten grand-kitten, Penny and grand-pups, Si and Bella.

Becky was preceded in death by her father, Charles Griffin. Her family was her world, and she poured her heart into every moment spent with them.

Graduating from Ben Davis High School with the class of 1981, Becky earned her Associate's Degree from Indiana Wesleyan College, and dedicated nearly 40 years of service working as a system test analyst for AT&T. A lifelong fan of Def Leppard, Becky traveled across the country to see them live, collecting memories and melodies that brought her joy. She found excitement in the roar of the racetrack, proudly cheering on Breanna in her work with IndyCar. She loved supporting Jamie in her athletic endeavors throughout the years. Many of her happiest days were spent on the sidelines of her two grandson's sporting events, where her cheers were loudest and her pride immeasurable.

Becky also found peace in the simple pleasures of life-especially in the solace of her own yard and home. She loved to mow the grass on her zero-turn lawn mower, soaking in the quiet and the sunshine, and tuning into Netflix or watching soap operas with Terry. Her legacy is one of resilience, warmth, and unwavering love. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Funeral and Cremation Arrangements were entrusted to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. Friends and family are invited to gather at the funeral home and Celebrate Becky's Life from Noon until 4:00pm, on Saturday, September 27, 2025. The family would like to encourage friends to honor Becky's memory by registering to become an organ donor, or by donating blood and plasma. Memorial contributions may be made online to benefit the Neuroendocrine Cancer Foundation at <https://www.ncf.net/donate>. To share a favorite story, send the family an online condolence, or light a candle on her memorial tribute page at www.lightmemorial.com.

“ I worked with Becky over the years, starting in the 80s. As frequent coworkers we shared births, deaths, divorces, kid worries, etc. Like many have mentioned, she was sweet, gorgeous and funny. What I remember most though is her forgiveness and grace at a time I really didn't deserve it. That experience meant more to me than she probably ever knew. Fly high Becky - we all love and miss you.

“ My heart is broken for Terry and her daughters Jamie and Breanna. Becky and I met at Indiana Bell in 1984 at Service Rep training center. From there we went to several different departments and worked together until I retired in 2007. Becky was always a good friend confidant. She always had a smile . I've since moved to Florida but kept in touch through FB . Sending all my love and prayers to Terry , Jamie & Breanna.

“ *Becky could light up a room with her beautiful smile. I worked with Becky several years and have endearing memories from that time. I lift your family up in prayers. Everyone knew how much Becky loved her family and friends.
My sincere condolences to all*

“Becky was gorgeous and had a carefree "California surfer girl" style which I admired and envied. She was slender and athletic with that shiny blonde hair, long lean legs, and a killer smile! Becky was friendly, fearless, and fun-loving, and everybody wanted "whatever she was having" - She lit up any room.

Becky was more than just a ray of sunshine: She was a lightning bolt! Her infectious energy and zany sense of humor electrified others.

I worked in a cubicle near Becky's for years at the phone company. We often exchanged "mom concerns" while deep-down I hoped that one or more of my sons might marry either or both of her girls: I told Becky she could choose the best two of my three! I could see that both Jamie and Breanna were "like mother, like daughter" priceless catches.

Becky's work ethic mirrored her energy. However, it was her incredibly caring heart that truly drew others to her like a magnet.

I remember that Becky was a former high school track star and high jumper. (...and YES, your read that right: Becky successfully competed and cleared high horizontal bars! Who else among us can claim that feat?) Despite the challenges of working fulltime with her own daughters and husband at home, Becky changed her work schedule so that she could leave by mid-afternoon to help coach track and field at Ben Davis Junior High School on Indy's westside.

Becky not only coached her athletes; She also bought shoes, food, and clothing for some of "her kids." She had such a soft heart for others, especially her adolescents whose home lives often lacked monetary means and parental support. Teens looking for hope confided in Becky, seeing not only a mentor, but a dynamic role model.

The weather was dark, dreary, and rainy the day we lost Becky.

However, above those gray clouds, the radiant sun shined as the angels shed tears of pure joy in escorting Becky to heaven. I can see her in the sunshine, in the rainy days to come, and especially in the thunder and lightning bolts. She remains a force of nature and an inspiration in my life.

“ Mark and i shared many memories and fun times with Becky She was always such a beautiful person and a blessing to have in our lives I worked with Becky at AT&T and can still see her sitting at her desk against the windows
Having moved to Florida I regretfully lost touch but she has always remained dear to my heart

She is now in heaven and I know Mark was happy to be there to wish her home

My heart breaks for Terry, Breanna and Jamie and the rest of her family You will remain in my prayers I know all too well what you are going through but lean on faith and Our Lord Death is only unkind to those left behind We will all be together again someday

“ Becky...my “girl cousin friend”...I always looked forward to whatever family event would bring us together...nothing special, just time chatting and laughing...reconnected as older “grown-ups” and loved sharing life’s journey...I was blessed to have Becky in my life. Much love to the family ❤️.
