

Daniel Graham Jr.

December 22, 1942 - June 1, 2015

Daniel Edward Graham, Jr., 72, of Wilbur, passed away peacefully in residence and surrounded by family on Monday evening, June 1, 2015. He was born on December 22, 1942, in New Haven, Connecticut, to the late Daniel and Elizabeth (Carey) Graham.

Danny worked for nearly 35 years at United Technology, previously known as Carrier and Bryant's Heating and Cooling in Indianapolis. He proudly served six years in the National Guard and was a member of the Mooresville Eagles. Above all, his interest was in his many cars, including his corvette. Danny enjoyed traveling to car shows, listening to the Indy 500, collecting old cars, and even raced stock cars in his younger years at Raceway Park. An honest, yet blunt man, he would let anyone know where they stood while still possessing a polite manner. He worked hard, but also took time to enjoy life and relax with a game of horseshoes or poker with friends and family.

Survivors include his children, Daniel Graham, III (wife, Anita) of Wilbur, Debbie Davis of Wilbur, Kim Graham of Wilbur and Angie Alexander of Greensburg; 16 grandchildren and many great grandchildren.

Friends and family are invited to visit from 4 to 8pm, on Friday, June 5, 2015, at Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. A Celebration of Life Service will begin at 11am, on Saturday, June 6, 2015, at the funeral. Danny's good friend, Joe Lane will officiate the services and burial will take place in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Hall. To share a favorite memory of Dan, leave an online condolence for the family, or sign the online guest registry visit www.lightmemorial.com.
