“ Debbie has always had a beautiful soul with a heart of gold. She was the flower girl at my wedding to her father’s brother in 1967. She was poised and smiling for someone so young. She lost her father Bob way too soon. Debbie LOVED her family dearly and her daughter’s are proof of that love. Her bright presence in life will be remembered long after her passing. Debbie please know you are much loved, your aunt Kathy

“ I've sat beside her every week day for the past five years at work, talking about our families, life, and, of course, all the "dumbasses" we had to deal with. 😊 I have missed and will continue to miss her coming in with a sigh, bolting up from her seat when someone hollered out there were donuts, her humming little tunes, "I'm not gonna argue with you" then proceed to do so 😊, all the banter and little sayings she had "what the jack" "what the shih tzu" "Yabba Dabba" I could go on for awhile. Please send some prayers and love to her daughters, granddaughters, and grandson, and our FedEx office right now. So hard to lose one of your own.

Gonna miss my quick witted, smart, funny , kind, loving, caring down for anything friend!

She was an ear if you needed someone to listen, she was a bank if you need to borrow money, she was a mover if you needed help moving, she was your dinner date if you need someone to go out with, she was a shoulder to cry on if you needed to cry on, she was a baby sitter if you needed a babysitter, she was problem solver if you couldn't figure something out, she was guaranteed to bring something for a pitch in, She was a person who never forgot the poor always donated to missions for all through out the year, she cared about the environment and recycled . She was a good neighbor to her neighbors, she the hardest working women I know. 2 3 4 jobs at a time what ever it took. She made sure always her bills were paid never ask for a hand out. Saved for her children and grandchildren!

She was truly an Amazing Mother, grandmother, friend, coworker and human! She will be missed by all! Heaven is lucky to have her! 💕💕💕
