“ I have so many memories I don't know where to begin, one of my favorite is when me and my sister got her to shake her butt, even though she wasn't feeling good she always worried about others before herself, she was the most kindest person u could ever meet, and had a heart of gold

“ Diane wasn't just my coworker, she was my friend. We always knew when the other one was having a bad day. Even when she was in pain, she took the time to listen, and be concerned with others. She had so much love for her family. You could see how proud she was when she spoke of her children and grandchildren. Family was everything to her. I cherish the friendship we had and will miss and love her always.

“ There are so many memories and hard to pick just one. One of my all time favorites is when we were all kids she would have all of us, her nieces and nephews, over for a camping sleep over. The girls in one tent, boys in another. We played games and just had fun. She always wanted to spend time with us no matter what she was going through. She leaves a big hole than can never be filled.
