“ Donna, I will treasure the memories at ISU. We played cards and told jokes. Some of the times I have laughed the hardest were with you and Tom. It was always fun to reconnect at the Putnam County Fair and laugh some more. Your smile always said, "Come on in, old friend." Thanks for your friendship.

I as a child growing up in Belle Union lived right down the road from Donna. She was a daily part of my childhood even if in passing or seeing her next door at her moms. Always friendly and had a smile and a wonderful personality. I even babysat for her children when they were small. Loved this family. I am deeply saddened for the loss of such a special neighbor and friend. Her family is in my prayers.

Wonderful friend and neighbor. Will miss her greatly. Didn't see her as often since I moved from the Belle Union community but saw her occasionally and stayed in touch!. Prayers of peace and comfort for her family! 🙏🙏❤️

Donna was one of my best friends. We have so many good memories. I love their kids and grandkids as if they were mine. Life will not be the same without her and Tom.
