

Douglas E. Powell

June 16, 1954 - July 10, 2015

Douglas E. Powell, 61, of Mooresville/Camby, passed away in the comfort of his own home on Friday morning at 7:52am, surrounded by his loving family. He was born on June 16, 1954, in East Chicago, to the late Charles Lee Powell and Nelda (Crafton) Whitney.

Douglas attended Martinsville High School. On September 15, 1979, he married the love of his life, Roxie L. (Snyder) Powell. He was the type of man that never met a stranger and was known for sharing many stories, whether they were true or not. Doug's quick-witted and dominant traits made him a legend in his own time. He found his enjoyments in life by spending time mowing his yard, etching glass, and even had quite the collection of Betty Boop memorabilia.

Along with his wife, Roxie, survivors include his two children, Christopher Powell (wife, Jenni) of Maryland and Melissa Powell of Mooresville; siblings, Trish Whitney, Jeff Powell and Michelle Smith; grandchildren, Chloe, Dylan, Rebecca and Mercedes; nephew and niece, Blake and Olivia Smith.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Doug's life at the Powell's residence which is located at 11768 N. East Drive, Camby, IN 46113. The gathering will be held on Saturday, August 1, 2015, beginning at 11am and will continue throughout the day. Funeral and cremation arrangements were entrusted to and handled by Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. To share a favorite memory, sign the online guest registry, or send an online condolence with the family visit www.lightmemorial.com.

“ Hi family! I'm so sorry to find out about Doug's passing. I'd always hoped I'd run across you all somewhere in life, but this is not what I'd hoped for. I still remember him in his skinny as a rail, wild and crazy young days. I'll try to come to the memorial. I'd love to see you again.
