

Edith Maxine Bauman

August 17, 1944 - November 6, 2020

Edith “Eddie” M. (Lane) Bauman, 76, of Indianapolis and formerly of Martinsville, passed from this life after battling lung cancer, on November 6, 2020, while surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on August 17, 1944 to the late Herschel and Edith Pearl (Walls) Lane in Liberty, Kentucky.

At a young age, Edie’s family moved from Kentucky to enjoy life in the small town of Martinsville. After high school, Edie married her first husband and started her family, staying home with her kids to raise them. As the children got older, she took a job with Polygram Records before retiring after sustaining back injuries. She was a member of the Indianapolis Baptist Temple, where she received baptism.

As a single mother of six daughters, Edie managed to stay young at heart, teaching her children how to enjoy the simple things in life like hunting for mushrooms and blackberries, then making her famous blackberry dumplings. Despite not having an abundant income, Edie somehow ensured her girls got everything they wanted for Christmas.

Quirky, fun, and outgoing, Edie was a stylish dresser who loved to shop. When her illness restricted her ability to get out of the house, she shopped online, still receiving packages until her last days. Her passions were reading, traveling, spending time in nature and getting on the floor to play with her beloved grandchildren. She leaves an immense legacy and will be deeply missed.

Along with her parents, Edie was preceded in death by her siblings, Patricia Haggard, Wavie Walls and Joseph Lane.

Edie leaves behind her husband of eighteen years, Fran Bauman of Indianapolis; children, Cindy Norris (husband Mark) of Eminence, Tracy Snowden, Susan Fultz both of Indianapolis, Kimberly Snowden of Fort Wayne, Lorrie Snowden of Indianapolis, and Crystal Snowden of Ft. Myers, FL; siblings, Barbara Garrett, Deva Leonard, Ruthie Freeman, Vina Raitliff and Connie Lee, all of Martinsville; grandchildren, Michele, Chasity, Jennifer, Nicole, Harley, Zachary, Christopher, Demo, Natasha, Miranda, Mikya, and Mackenzie; great grandchildren, Anthony, Quentin, Catelin, Taylor, Jayden, Peyton, Elena, Eleanor, Ember, Ka'lani, Meechie, RJ, Josiah, Braylon, Klayton, with Zoe on the way; and great great grandchild, Edyn.

Friends and family are invited to gather on Wednesday, November 11, 2020, from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. at Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. A Celebration of Life Service will begin at 1:00 p.m., Pastor Ellery Hunsley will officiate, and burial will follow in White Lick Cemetery. COVID-19 Statewide Mandate: Attendees are required to provide their own masks and wear facial coverings throughout the duration of services. Please be mindful of social distancing and avoid all personal contact to slow the spreading. Arrangements have been entrusted to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel, Monrovia. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 5635 W. 96th St./Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN 46278. Online condolences and memories may be shared with the family at www.lightmemorial.com.

“ Mom, I will miss you always and forever. You were my best friend, and I will miss our talks on the way home from work, you singing Happy Birthday to me on the phone, visiting with you, and so much more. I know you are at peace but I really wasn't ready to let you go. What I would do if I had one more day with ypu, I would sit by your side and read to you for awhile, talk and just hold your hand. Forever in my heart, Tracy ”
