“ I grew up with her son Tim. After I was an adult with children if my own she admitted that at one time she thought I was a bad influence on Tim. I smiled at her and said, "Yes, but you didn't realize how much of a good influence Tim was on me." When that epiphany hit, the pride in her son radiated from her face and I think it hit home how good a job she did raising her son.

She was a special woman and will be greatly missed.
