July 11, 1934 - August 22, 2023

Frank L. McLoney, 89, of Monrovia, passed from this life on Tuesday, August 22, 2023, while in the care of Meadow Lakes in Mooresville. He was born in a cabin in Farmersburg, IN on July 11, 1934, to the late Frank Lee Roy and Laura Alice Mary (Coffman) McLoney.

Raised on an 80-acre farm in coal mining country, Frank was one of four children. Graduating from Farmersburg High School at the young age of 17, he moved to Indianapolis to find work, where he met his future wife, Ethyl. Drafted into the United States Army at the end of the Korean War, he proudly went overseas to serve his country. When his tour of duty was complete, he returned home and secured employment with Wetsvago paper company, where he was a talented machine adjuster for 32 years.

A hard worker by nature, Frank enjoyed tending to his vegetable garden, along with mowing his yard. An animal lover, he was known to befriend the neighborhood squirrels, feeding them daily and making them his pets. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and spending time checking out nearby flea markets. A devoted and loving father to his daughter, Theresa, he also doted on his grandchildren. A past member of Moose Lodge 17, Frank appreciated the smoothness of an ice-cold beer. A good friend to all he knew, he was a caring soul who will be missed by those left behind.

Along with his parents, Frank was preceded in death by his son, George Chevrier; and siblings, Evelyn Fisher, Minnie Kromermyer, and John McLoney.

He leaves behind his children, Theresa Rawley (Jeff) of Monrovia, Edith Inglesaw of Indianapolis, Paul Chevrier (Yvonne) of Brazil, And Michael Chevrier (Robin) of Indianapolis; along with grandchildren, Jacob Rawley of Monrovia, and Heather Curtis (Zach) of Tacoma, WA.
