

Jamie Todd Brown

December 25, 1960 - April 8, 2016

Jamie Todd Brown, 55, of Petersburg, Indiana, suddenly and unexpectedly passed away on Friday, April 8, 2016, in St. Mary's Medical Center. He was born on December 25, 1960, in Greencastle, to the late Freddie and Charlene (Hine) Brown.

Jamie grew up at the Hine farm located on Gore Road and graduated from Eminence High School in 1979, where he was often referred to as Todd. At the age of 25, Mr. Brown moved to Petersburg with his mother, where he resided for the past 30 years. He married Alice (Freeland) Brown on February 17, 1990, started a family and later adopted and even fostered several children. He was currently an employee of Peabody Coal; working as an operator for 16 years. Known to be a gentle giant, Jamie was friendly to everyone, yet maintained a small circle of trusted friends. In addition to telling stories, Jamie enjoyed hunting and was a proud hardworking provider to his family.

Survivors include his children, Lacy BreAnna Jackson (husband, Robert) of Scottsburg, Dakota Ray Brown and Dylan Andrew Brown both of Petersburg; former spouse, Alice Brown of Petersburg; sisters, Lorri Brown (husband, Ron Lemond) of Arthur and Regina Gebert (husband, Lyle) of Washington; cousins, Bruce and Michael Hubbard both of Clayton and a niece, Calla DeMotte of Nashville, TN.

A Celebration of Life Service will begin at 2pm, on Tuesday, April 12, 2016, in Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia, with visitation held there from Noon. Burial will follow in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Hall and Robert Hine will officiate the services. To share a favorite memory, send the family an online condolence, or light a candle in his memory visit www.lightmemorial.com.

“ I have known Jamie and his sisters since they were new born babies. I started baby sitting with his sister, Regina when she was around three years old. I stayed with Charlene when she brought Jamie and Lorri each home from the hospital, helping with the children, playing with them, and helping with light house work. I considered Charlene one of my older sisters. I loved her and her children dearly and still do. I miss Charlene since she passed away almost two years ago. Her children will always have a special place in my heart. My deepest sympathy to Jamie's sisters, and his three children.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I never met Jamie but felt I knew him as Joyce Arthur talked about your family with much love to me many times. I also saw his daughter at a dance recital (I think) in Washington at the YMCA. I think her name is lacy and she close to Callas age.

“ I will always remember Jamie with his big grin and joking all the time. He had a heart of gold and would give anyone the shirt off his back, if they needed it. He was a kind and generous soul and a wonderful Father to his children, I will miss seeing him go up the lane to his house and waving, sometimes stopping for a brief chat.
Loving memories to the family and God Bless everyone.

“ Jamie was a wonderful person. He and Alice believed in giving me a second chance when the world turned their back on me. They gave me the greatest gift in life I ever could've had. They adopted two of my kids and Gabe them everything I never could have. I will never forget how he always had a smile on his face and a joke about something to share. He was always picking on me. If he picked on you and gave you a nickname then that meant he liked you. He will be greatly missed. He meant alot to me. Him and Alice are like Mon and dad to me.
