

Jessup James Rinehart

February 5, 1997 - May 11, 2022

Jessup James Rinehart, 25 years young of Monrovia, tragically and unexpectedly lost his life in a motorcycle accident on Wednesday, May 11, 2022. He was born in Indianapolis on February 5, 1997, to Mark A. and Lorri L. (Hodgin) Rinehart. He was the sweetest, blue-eyed baby boy with the cutest biggest towhead.

After proudly graduating from Monrovia High School with the class of 2016, Jessup's father took him under his wing, teaching him the art of bricklaying, and the father-son duo traveled across the United States. Most recently, he was employed with Hulcher Services as a crane operator. Marrying his teenage sweetheart on September 26, 2020, Jessup and Carly loved each other deeply. While their romance was on again, off again throughout the years, they always managed to find their way back together. He was a devoted and considerate husband, consistently standing up for her, frequently listening to and validating all her thoughts and emotions.

A thoughtful and gentle soul, he was known to be hardheaded at times, but truly had a heart of gold. Soft-spoken and reserved, Jessup never missed the opportunity to speak up and make himself known when the time was right. After suffering a nearly fatal accident when an airbag exploded in his face last year, his outlook on life was forever changed. Living life as if every day was his last, he knew no boundaries and discovered a love for riding his treasured

Harley Sportster with his best buddies. Throughout his time on earth, there was one person that loved him more than life itself, his mother Lorri. She will be forever broken from the loss of her beloved baby boy, JJ. Although his time with us was short, he left an indelible impact on all who knew and loved him.

Jessup was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Larry Gullion, and Ray Rinehart, along with his uncle, Tommy Hodgin.

He leaves behind his wife, Carly A. (Walker) Rinehart of Monrovia; unborn daughter, Paisley; parents, Mark and Lorri Rinehart of Camby; sisters, Ashlea Dykes (Tim) of Martinsville, and Brittany Graychek (Chris) of Louisville, KY; grandparents, Sandy Gullion of Camby, Judy Rinehart of Louisville, KY, and Thomas Hodgin (Terra) of Indianapolis; along with fur babies, Quincy, Blaze, Thor, and Max.

Cremation Arrangements have been entrusted to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. A Gathering of Friends & Family will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2022, from 12:00p.m., until 4:00p.m., at Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel. A Celebration of Life Memorial Service will begin promptly at 4:00p.m., and Pastor Keenan Steinway will officiate. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel, 585 E Main St, Monrovia, IN 46157 to help offset his final expenses. Envelopes will be available during services or donations may be made online in Jessup's memory by visiting <https://paypal.me/LightMemorial>. To share a favorite story, send an online condolence to the family, or light a candle in his memory, please search @MonroviaFuneralHome on social media or visit his tribute at www.lightmemorial.com.

“ Carly, I'm very sorry about you losing Jessup. You were soulmates and you both knew it. Even through your bad times he always made his way back to you. The heart is a powerful tool. Cherish the good times you both had and you will have smiles on your face often. It will take time for you to deal with this. Grieve now and don't let anyone interfere with that process. You need to do it in your own way! Love you, Aunt Jeanie

“ Dear Family:

We, the families of The Compassionate Friends, send you our heartfelt condolences on Jessup's passing.

The Compassionate Friends is an international, non-denominational, grief support group for parents, grandparents and siblings who have suffered the heartbreaking loss of a child. Our only mission is to provide comfort, hope and support to every family experiencing the death of a son or daughter, brother or sister, or grandchild, and to help others better assist the grieving family.

We meet monthly on the first Wednesday at the New Hope Church, 5307 Fairview Rd, Greenwood, IN 46142 and on the third Tuesday at the Epworth United Methodist, 6450 Allisonville Road, Indianapolis, IN 46220. Both meetings begin at 6:30pm.

If, and when, you are ready to do so, please join us for either, or both, meetings.

We Need Not Walk Alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.
