

Larry Ross

December 10, 1968 - March 25, 2017

Larry Eugene Ross, 48, of Mooresville, passed from this life on Saturday, March 25, 2017. He was born on December 10, 1968, in Danville, Indiana to Earl and Millie Ross.

Larry attended Cascade School where he loved playing baseball. His favorite position on the team was catcher. A mischievous child, he enjoyed riding his moped and disassembling and reassembling objects just to see how they worked. Larry took those skills into adulthood and became a brilliant mechanic; he lived and breathed cars. On May 31, 1998 Larry was united in marriage to the love of his life, Jeanne Anne Hunt. They were blessed with two wonderful sons, Jacob and Brandon.

A self-employed mechanic and work-a-holic, Larry was there to help anyone and everyone he knew, all times of the day. He had a heart of gold and absolutely adored his family, especially his grandchildren. He will be greatly missed by all.

Survivors include his wife, Jeanne Ross of Mooresville; son, Jacob Lee Ross of Mooresville; step son Brandon Ross of Mooresville; parents Earl and Millie Ross of Plainfield; brother, Lee Ross (Betty) of Franklin; sisters Lori Scott (Jim) of Indianapolis and Angela Lippard of Indianapolis; grandchildren Ava, Tyson, Lucy and Mason; and several nieces and nephews.

“ I told "Betsy", my car she couldnt break down anymore, it was a long drive to heaven....no matter where I was, what he was doing. I could call him anytime and he would come to his little sisters rescue still to this day even at our age. This is something that he has always done my entire life. I never had to ask for anything, just point to it and and he would get it for me as a child. As I grew older oh sure we argued and fused and fought about things but he was still my best friend. He knew me better than anyone just about. I had bariatric surgery back in 2005 and in 2007 I lived in Mooreville. My two youngest kids attended Mooresville schools. I had been placed in the hospital and had been in there for the entire summer, about 8-9 weeks. I was really ill. Larry took over the parenting of my youngest kids, Adam & Autumn. They learned that spahgetti was quickly named worms with sauce. He made life so much easier for them when I could not be there for them. I love him so much for that and will forever be grateful for such a wonderful role model. Til we meet again big brother I love you and will carry your legacy on.
