

Lilian M. Miller

November 10, 2023 - December 26, 2023

Lilian Margret Miller, was returned to the angels the morning after Christmas after just arriving six short weeks and four days prior. The seventh child brought into this world by her birthmother, Stephanie Miller. A sweet and perfect angel, Lilian and her 7 lbs. and 1 oz. of sweetness, was delivered at 4:00pm, on November 10, 2023, from within Franciscan Hospital of Mooresville.

Selflessly transferring guardianship and custodial rights to remain within the family, Lilian was loved beyond measure by her mommy and daddy, James and Logan Miller. This little ball of sweetness came with a darlin demeanor, and she effortlessly stole the attention and hearts of everyone that was blessed to see her. An easy-going and content little spirit, she was a trooper to adapt to life's routines and all of her angelic spirit was truly a blessing that was shared between many. Leaving a circle of family with her memory, Lilian's brief time on earth will forever live in the hearts that were shattered when she left. Her nursery was filled with pink and grey baby elephants, and sunflowers. She was her daddies beautiful hunnies and had him wrapped around her finger from the moment she was born. She was her mommy's sunshine as they would listen to it every morning and every night on the way home from the babysitter. She adored Christmas lights, and the grinch. She would just stare at the lights and grinch decorations in the living room for hours. She loved watching baby cow videos with her daddy. He promised her two baby cows (Tinker Bell and Blue Bell).

Welcomed into the gates of heaven by her paternal great grandmother, Sue Goodyear, paternal great grandfather Charles G. Hicks, and Uncle Chad E. Walden. Maternal great grandfathers James E. England, Fred Kenworthy, and great uncle Timothy Heitzman. Along with her birth mother, survivors left in mourning include her loving parents, James Dean and Logan Ariane Miller of Mooresville; siblings, Justin, Gracie, Eli, Bella, Autumn, Noah, Serenity, Chad Jr., Hunter, Dakota, Haley Lorelai, and Luke; paternal grandparents, Alice and Randell Calton of Poland, and great grandmother, Alta Hicks of Martinsville; maternal grandparents, Gary and Angie England of Martinsville and great grandmother, Janet England of Indianapolis, and great grandparents, Nina and Phil Henderson of Mooresville; aunt, Trina; uncles, Lee and Justin, Cody; great aunt, Sharon England; along with a host of extended relatives, family friends, and three canine protectors and furry friends, Princess, Bagheera, and Sam.
