

Margret E. Riggs

April 23, 1918 - August 7, 2015

Margret E. Riggs, 97, of Monrovia, passed away on Friday, August 7, 2015, in the comfort of her home. She was born on April 23, 1918, in Indianapolis, to the late Davis and Sadie (Ballance) Terhune.

Margret graduated from Shortridge High School. She married Max Riggs on February 19, 1944; and they moved to Monrovia in 1954. A quiet and simple lady, Margret took great pride in her family. She was an excellent cook, had a great sense of humor and frequently wore a smile. Margret enjoyed feeding the birds, working crossword puzzles and was known to provide a home for many cats over the years. Her first cat, Mr. Kitty left an impression on Margret, because after his passing, she decided to name each one of her beloved feline companions, Miss Kitty. In addition, she loved her flowers, especially sunflowers and found great joy and comfort spending time at home.

Along with her parents and husband, Max, she was preceded in death by her son-in-law, Mark Owen.

Survivors include her daughters, Carolyn Dunbar (husband, Phill) of Monrovia, Linda Hughett (husband, Don) of Monrovia, Karen Owen of Little Point; grandchildren, Jamey Fisher, Denise Rapp, Michael Hughett, Brendon and Tammy Tolle, Dakota Owen; 7 great grandchildren; 1 great great grandchild; special friend and caregiver, Robin Fisher of Monrovia.

A graveside service will be held at 10am, on Monday, August 10, 2015, in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Hall. Pastor Jack Elliott will officiate the services. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. “ I gave her a perm a few weeks ago & she tried to run over me with her Will chair. I looked at her & she had this look like she was smiling about it but she never said a word. I think in her mine it was her way to kid around with me, although she had never met me. I don't know if Linda remembers it or not. I thought it was really funny with the look she gave me.
