Reggie Dean Johnson, 77, of Plainfield, passed from this life of a broken heart and was rejoined with his beloved wife Sue in the early morning hours of Thursday, December 12, 2024, while in the comfort of his home and his devoted daughter, Brandy, at his bedside. He was born in Crawfordsville, IN on September 15, 1947, to the late Vernon D. and Wilma J. (Needham) Johnson.

Reggie met his future wife Merletta "Sue" Miller while on a fishing trip with her dad. The pair were happily united in marriage on March 20, 1968, and spent 56 years together. A member of the Monrovia Christian Church, he was truly a simple man. He found his joy in fishing, golfing, mushroom hunting, and spending time with his loving family. He will be forever missed.

Along with his parents, Reggie was preceded in death by his wife Sue, who left this world just two and a half months ago.

“ Brandy, I am so very sorry for your loss. Though we were not related, we joked about it since we shared the same last name. Reggie and I would pick on each other at church and your mom was the sweetest thing. They will be missed. Prayers for you during this time. Love Laura and Bethany Johnson
