

Regina Kay Sprague

November 28, 1971 - June 25, 2015

Regina Kay Sprague, 43, of Indianapolis, formerly of Monrovia, passed from this life on Thursday evening, June 25, 2015, in Ft. Wayne. She was born on November 28, 1971, in Charleston, South Carolina, to the late Ronald Sprague and Barbara (Johnson) Sprague.

Regina graduated from Monrovia High School in 1990. She moved to Indianapolis after graduation and later became a mother to two children. Sadly, Regina was involved in a car accident that had left her in a paraplegic state for the past 18 years. In her spare time, she enjoyed listening to music and being around all of her loved ones, including her dogs and cats.

Survivors include her loving children, Jessica Cramer of Plainfield and Tyler Jernigan of Mooresville; siblings, Kenneth Sprague of Indianapolis and RD Sprague of Monrovia; grandson, Grayson Maldonado of Plainfield; step-mother, Debra Sebo of Mooresville.

Family will gather privately for services prior to cremation at Light Memorial & Funeral Chapel in Monrovia. To share a favorite memory, send an online condolence to the family, or light a candle in Regina's memory visit www.lightmemorial.com.

“ My heart aches, I can't believe your gone. You was one of a kind. I met Regina at a nursing home. I took out for a cig and got in trouble. So I packed her up and took her home. I cared for her many years as caretaker and friend. There was nothing I wouldn't do for her. She will forever be in my heart. We love you Juicy! Until we meet again.
