

Shaun Parsons

January 10, 1982 - May 16, 2024

Shaun Ray Parsons, 42, of Mooresville, unexpectedly departed from this world on Thursday, May 16, 2024. He was born on January 10, 1982, in Indianapolis, to Floyd Ray and Lori (Williams) Parsons.

Graduating from Mooresville High School with the class of 2000, Shaun possessed a quiet yet friendly demeanor, and his heart and emotions were worn on his sleeve. A hardworking and skilled handyman, Shaun was truly a jack-of-all-trades. Mechanically inclined, Shaun had a knack for rebuilding small motors and he could get just about anything running again. An avid collector with hoarder tendencies, he was able to turn junk into treasure and was an overall Master of Repairs. Shaun previously operated heavy machinery for Deerwester Development and was recently doing landscaping for Parks Outdoor Maintenance.

A true outdoorsman, he loved to fish, camp, ride four-wheelers, and hunt morel mushrooms every spring. He was a grill master and a darn good cook who was generous to host and help every chance he could. Finding solace in music and journaling, Shaun was a talented and self-taught musician, playing both the guitar and drums. He had an eclectic taste of music and a heart that felt on deeper levels than the ordinary man. With a backpack of pens and paper, he made sense of all the madness, and he put it in his own perspective through writing. Shaun was a kind-hearted soul with a free spirit. He loved to pack up and visit his dad and grandparents in Virginia and he looked forward to getting together with family on Wednesday evenings. Throughout his life he was blessed to make several friendships and it is within the love and memories made, he leaves an indelible mark. Leaving this world without warning, he will be forever remembered and loved by all who shared his path. Rest easy, Shaun.

He was preceded in death by his father, Floyd Parsons; paternal grandparents, Troy and Roberta Parsons; and stepfather, Alan Deerwester.

Survivors include his mother, Lori Parsons of Mooresville; children, Dallas Fredrick Troy, Demie Lora, and Silas Ray; sister, Alexandira Parsons of Mooresville; nieces, Ruby and Riley; maternal grandparents, Earl and Rosalie Williams of Mooresville; along with a host of extended family members and friends.

“ On behalf of the Whitaker family, you're all in our hearts and prayers. Shaun and my little brother tagged along with me some in high school. I'm lucky to have those memories, and know they're both casting a line together now.

“ Oh Hannah and Silas, I am so sorry to learn of this. Our last conversation was just a few weeks ago and he talked about how much he loved you and Silas. You were his world. Take comfort in your many memories and in knowing he loved you more than life itself. No one can take that away from you. You and your family are in our prayers. We love you and will miss Shaun dearly.

“ My brother and I grew up with Shaun and saw him throughout the years, but faded a bit in our later years. Ill always remember us going for adventures in the woods as young kids and the bigger and better things we did as young teens. My brother passed in 1996 at 15 and Shaun is being celebrated on his birthday May 22.... Shaun was a very funny person and I loved being around him. Of course i was the younger brother so I didn't get to do everything they did, but when I was included we had a blast. I always loved going to Aunt Lori's to see Shaun on random occasions. I talked to him about three years ago then lost touch with him after. This absolutely breaks my heart and the tears are for his family and his children. He always seemed older than everyone else but he was just a few months older than me. We never set still when we were all together. We always were on the go trying to find something to get into. I'll always remember his voice and his face... I've missed you for a few years now and I'll miss you even more now. Love and the best to Lori, Alex and his children. You are an amazing family and I have memories I'll never forget with Shaun. His laugh, his energy, his smile and his laugh. Love you brother. I hope you are at peace and tell my brother I love him as well. We all were the three amigos at times. You will be missed and never forgotten. RIP Shaun.
